

Niamh Ward

Nominee for PRII Life Fellowship 2023.

Niamh Ward has contributed to the PRII and the public relations sector in Ireland for over 30 years, mainly in education.

Niamh worked as Director of the Diploma in Public Relations, Rathmines College of Further Education for over twenty years, teaching PR, media analysis and communications.

She is a member of the PRII since 1989 and a Fellow of the PRII for over 15 years. In total, she served on the PRII National Council for almost a decade and during that service made significant contributions to the growth, development, and reputation of the Institute.

Niamh has held a variety of voluntary roles with the Institute including active participation on several National Council Sub-Committees and played a key role in the redesign of the Institute's Diploma in Public Relations.

She has been a Subject Examiner and External Examiner on the PRII Diploma for Public Relations and she was a Judge of longstanding on the Awards for Excellence in Public Relations.

Many individuals working in the profession, from Rathmines College to The Public Relations Institute and beyond, have benefited from her dedication and commitment to high standards of education in the profession.

Currently Principal of Crumlin College of Further Education, Niamh remains a committed member, attending events and supporting individuals in the industry.

---